HELP US BUILD THE NEW TRAIL LINK FROM NORTHWEST SPOKANE TO RIVERSIDE
STATE PARK

Volunteers will work Saturday, June 12, to help finish this vital trail link

The new trail from Dwight Merkel Sports Complex down to Riverside State Park is nearing completion and you can help be part of this vital trail link from Northwest Spokane to Riverside State Park.

On Saturday, June 12, a volunteer work party is being planned to help finish this trail. Once done it will connect NW Spokane, Joe Albi Stadium and the brand new Dwight Merkel Sports Complex to Riverside State Park and the Spokane River. This trail will create a new and exciting opportunity to Mount Bike, Hike, Trail Run and Dog Walk.

To complete this trail we are putting the call out for volunteers. Even if you cannot attend it would help if you could please forward this on to people and groups you know that might want to volunteer.

Join us on Saturday, June 12, at 9:00 am at the W. Francis Cul-de-sac just off Rosewood Dr. in Northwest Spokane
