

August 17, 2010

Further information: 509.535.0886

POW WOW 2010 IN RIVERFRONT PARK

The 21st Annual Spokane Falls Northwest Indian Encampment and Pow Wow will be held August 27-28 in Riverfront Park.

Activities include:

- Fun Run for Health, 1 or 3 miles, Saturday August 28. Register 8 am; run at 9 am. This is a poker style run with great prizes. Sponsored by NATIVE Project/NATIVE Health of Spokane.
- Competition Dancing and Drum Contest Special.
- Grand Entry Friday 7 pm, Saturday 1 pm and 7 pm
- Arts & crafts and food booths

Pow Wow is sponsored by the Greater Spokane Indian Community, Local Tribes and the City of Spokane.

About the Spokane Falls Northwest Indian Encampment and Pow Wow

This annual event takes place in Riverfront Park and typically is held the last weekend in August. The event draws thousands of people to the Park to participate or watch Inland Northwest Tribes celebrate their heritage with dancing, drumming and handicrafts. The Pow Wow has become a signature event for Spokane, and in addition to competitive dancing, and beautiful native drumming & singing, arts and crafts and food booths are featured. Pow Wow events are held in the Riverfront Park Lilac Bowl. Admission is free for spectators.

###