About the Northeast Youth Center

The Northeast Youth Center (NEYC) is a non-profit organization that has been affiliated with the City of Spokane Parks and Recreation Department since 1971. NEYC is committed to providing low cost recreational and educational opportunities that build life experiences while enhancing the self-esteem in youth/teens in the community. NEYC serves a diverse population of Spokane's youth through a variety of low cost activities, before and after school licensed camps, sports programs, and special events. Overall, the youth center promotes a culturally enriching environment to support responsible ways of learning social interaction, and a place to feel respected and accepted in a "home away from home."
