Reforest Spokane Day ...

a Finalist in Tom's of Maine's 50 States for Good challenge!

The Lands Council is excited to announce that their project, "Reforest Spokane Day," has been chosen as one of 20 finalists in Tom's of Maine's 50 States for Good challenge.

What does this mean?

This means that should the project win - Tom's of Maine will grant the funds to plant:

10,000 native Ponderosa Pines with the help of 500 Volunteers in ONE SINGLE DAY Right HERE is Spokane!!

Imagine Spokane with an additional 10,000 Ponderosa Pines! The mighty Ponderosa Pine is not only a native species to the Inland Northwest, but also:

Provides much-needed shade
Reduces Traffic Noise Beautifies our City

About The Lands Council

In 1983, John Osborn, then an intern at Sacred Heart Medical Center, decided something needed to be done to help protect the land he called home. A group of area physicians, concerned about the environment's effect on people's health, agreed. And thus The Lands Council, a local grassroots, non-profit dedicated to protecting the quality of life in the Inland Northwest, was born. Since its humble beginnings, The Lands Council has protected thousands of acres of public land, and in the process worked to preserve the forests, water, and wildlife we all depend on for life.
