PUT THE GARDENS TO BED EVENT

The Friends of the Moore-Turner Heritage Gardens cordially invite you to the “Put the Gardens to Bed” Event, Friday, October 7, 2011 from 5 – 8 p.m.; $20 a person (includes $10 Friends’ membership).

Located in Edwidge Woldson Park at 507 West Seventh Avenue, the Gardens are owned and operated by the City of Spokane Parks & Recreation Department. Re-discovered in 1998, the Gardens were restored in 2007 to the time they flourished between 1911 and 1914. Take this opportunity to enjoy the Gardens in the fall and “The Neighborhood in the Time,” a historic overview of Seventh Avenue at the turn of the 20th century – a presentation by Linda Yeomans’. The event will be held at the Corbin Art Center, appetizers will be served. RSVP: 448-9335.

Moore-Turner Heritage Gardens, west of Corbin Art Center, and the D.C. Corbin House (Corbin Art Center) are listed on the local, state, and national historic registers and are situated in the Marycliff/Cliff Park National Register Historic District. For additional information please call the Corbin Art Center at (509) 625-6677.

About Spokane Parks and Recreation

City of Spokane Parks and Recreation is responsible for the professional management and prudent caretaking of more than 4,100 acres of developed parks and conservation land. The Golf Division maintains and operates four championship municipal golf courses, including Indian Canyon, Downriver, Esmeralda and the Creek at Qualchan. Park Operations has responsibility for the maintenance of all park land and park facilities in the City of Spokane including Riverfront Park, Manito Park, Gaiser Conservatory and the many city-wide gardens, Finch Arboretum and the Urban Forestry Program. The Recreation/Entertainment Division offers classes, special events, athletic leagues and activities for youth, teens, adults, seniors and persons with physical and mental disabilities. It also operates Riverfront Park attractions, activities and events including the Spokane Falls SkyRide, the Loeff Carrousel and IMAX Theatre, and provides support for community centers, senior centers, the Northeast Youth Center, Corbin Art Center and outdoor swimming pools.
